Glamorous monochrome decorations for your Christmas table

Create an impact on your Christmas Day table this year with The Last Detail's striking range of monochrome partyware – a dramatic and eye-catching alternative to the traditional Christmas decor in shades of red, green and gold.

In a stylish black and white damask design, the co-ordinating 'After Dark' range features everything from luxury crackers to table games and provides glamorous finishing touches to any festive celebration.

The sophisticated crackers each contain a silver gift such as a photo frame as well as a black tissue paper hat, a pack of trivia containing general knowledge questions and a paper glass marker. Each cracker is beautifully finished with black satin ribbon tied around each end.

Get the conversation flowing with the nostalgic 'fancy fortune tellers' (a modern take on the playground puzzle you used to fashion from paper and colour in with daft predictions or dares), or a double box set of trivia. Choose from the 'Talk' box containing 60 conversation starters such as 'What is the best age to be?', or the 'Controversial' box containing 60 cards with subjects to debate or discuss such as 'Are men drivers better than women?'. Be as serious or as light-hearted as you like!

For those that like a bit of sparkle but want to steer clear of tinsel, blue and turquoise star confetti (with large and small stars) is a contemporary alternative and looks great sprinkled across the table or mantelpiece. Alternatively, consider scattering black rose petals or feathers for a more understated look.

The elegant cone shaped posh poppers not only look the part as their name suggests but also contain reams of silver foil streamers to help celebrate in style. The champagne bottle of 20 small black and white party poppers full of shiny silver foil streamers is a more economical option if you have a larger table to decorate.

Personal place cards not only advise guests where to sit, but also feature 16 attributes from 'clever' to 'gorgeous' allowing you to describe each person's character.

Fountain candles designed for placing in puddings, or indoor sparklers placed in cocktails, add the final celebratory touches.

All 'After Dark' products are available to order online at www.thelastdetail.co.uk and can be found under the 'party fun/co-ordinating party ranges' section.
