The Last Detail launches hen night essentials collection

A new range of hen night items has been launched by leading provider of finishing touches for weddings and special occasions, The Last Detail.

Hand-picked by The Last Detail's founder, Kaley Gardiner, the collection features high quality hen night essentials from sashes and boppers, whistles and bunny sets as well as hen night goody bag gifts such as pocket photo albums and satin eye masks.

The collection is divided into three categories; Hen Night Accessories, Hen Night Dares and Game and Hen Night Gifts and Stationery.

The Hen Night Accessories range features all the obligatory, fun items to ensure that the hen and her party are the centre of attention on their night out; from whistles to boppers, bubbles to badges and sashes to glasses, there's something to suit every taste.

The Hen Night Dares and Games range includes a Scavenger Hunt Game with a list of tasks to be completed by the hen party, an Action Spinner Game to help the hen party decide what to do next as well as a Scratch a Dare game that decides What you'll be doing, Who you'll be doing it do and How you'll be doing it. There's also an 'advice for the bride' t-shirt complete with marker pen to allow the hens and any passers-by to record their thoughts and wishes for the bride to be.

Items featured in the Gifts and Stationery range include luxurious embroidered eye masks in pink or black satin for glamorous hens as well as a selection of pocket album and guest books to store any memories of the big night out.

Priced very competitively, the collection promises to be budget friendly with many items under £10.

In addition to launching the new Hen Night range, The Last Detail has recently undergone a rebrand and improved navigation around its website.

A key feature of the new website is the 'Ideas and Inspiration' section; an invaluable bank of ideas to inspire and help create a truly unforgettable look. The section features top tips on using colour, themes and how to decorate items such as napkins or placecards. There is a 'where do I start' page full of advice for those who need a helping hand to get them going as well as the chance to see what decoration ideas other brides have had.

The new site and Hen Night range can be viewed at www.thelastdetail.co.uk.
