

The Last Detail adds gorgeous new colours to Chocolate Hearts and Feathers range

Five new colours have been added to The Last Detail's range of milk chocolate hearts while two new colours have been added to its range of feathers in response to demand for increasingly niche colour schemes.

The new chocolate heart colours include Orange, Green, Antique Ivory, Copper and Midnight Blue, bringing the total number of colours in the range to 16. The chocolate hearts are ideal for filling favour boxes or bags and are a staple favourite with brides to be. A 500g box of approximately 80 chocolate hearts costs £10.49.

Chocolate Brown and vibrant tropical Orange have been added to the range of feathers, which now includes 12 different colours in total. The feathers are perfect for adding striking finishing touches to tables, napkins, place cards and favour boxes. One box of approximately 120 feathers costs £8.00.

"The new colours complement our existing range of products allowing brides to plan their entire reception theme around one colour. Now they can colour coordinate every last detail from the favour boxes, trimmings and fillings right down to the table accessories."

All products are available to order online at www.thelastdetail.co.uk and can be found when shopping by colour by specific product categories; the chocolate hearts can be found under the 'Favours' section under 'Favour fillings', while the feathers can be found under the 'For the table' section.
