Glamorous red and gold party ware for your Christmas table

Inject some glamour into your Christmas table this year with The Last Detail's elegant range of co-ordinating Pretty Parlour party ware.

Combining warm reds, chocolate brown and gold with a large floral motif, the range includes Christmas must-haves such as crackers and is ideal for anyone looking to add a modern twist to traditional festive decor.

The miniature crackers, available in packs of eight, with four rich red and four chocolate brown crackers, each contain a trivia question, joke, conversation starter, charade and hat and are ideal for getting your guests in a festive mood.

Get the conversation flowing with some table games that are perfect for breaking the ice at any festive get-together. Choose from either the gold Table Talk set with 60 conversation starting questions such as 'What was the funniest incident you have ever witnessed?', or the red Table Trivia box containing 60 general knowledge questions such as 'Which snooker ball is worth more: yellow or green?'

For those that like a bit of sparkle but want to steer clear of tinsel, the gold or red star confetti (with large and small stars) is a contemporary alternative and looks great scattered across the table or mantelpiece.

The elegant cone-shaped posh poppers not only look the part as their name suggests but also contain reams of red and gold foil streamers, adding sparkle to the table once opened. If you have a larger table to decorate, 25 small red and gold poppers presented in a rich red organza bag are a more economical option.

20 shiny gold indoor sparklers presented in a gorgeous tin that's just too nice to throw away (available in red or gold) add the final finishing touches – place the sparklers into desserts or cocktails and light before serving for a dramatic effect! The tin with its cute floral motif design also makes the perfect stocking-filler gift.

All 'Pretty Parlour' products are available to order online at www.thelastdetail.co.uk and can be found under the 'party fun/co-ordinating party ranges' section.
