For unusual, inspirational and stylish ideas for your table The Last Detail can lend a helping hand. Get handy hints and tips on how to create the must-have looks for 2006, whether you fancy contemporary black decorations or classic ivory.

Table Decorations

Decorating your table to perfection can create a lasting impression on your guests. Whether you prefer the delicate, unique touch of dried baby rose-buds, or, flamboyant colourful feathers, each style can be individually catered for. Real rose petals scattered across the table look elegant, combined with stylish place cards, finished with the soft touch of a luxurious feather. Metallic star or heart confetti can alter the mood of a table and add that extra sparkle.

Party Products

To bring out the 'big kid' in all those party guests, and of course keep the children amused – choose from a range of sophisticated, fun products to place on your table. Giant party poppers and exploding torpedoes are sure to be an instant hit! For those guests who prefer the more gentle approach to celebrating, heart or star shaped sparklers in silver or gold are a perfect choice and will create a fantastic ambience. Alternatively pick the bottles of wedding cake bubbles to add that extra fairytale feel.

Disposable Cameras

Make sure the special moments of your day are caught on camera by providing each table with high quality, colour co-ordinated disposable cameras. Whether it's to capture the Bride and Grooms first dance, or Grandma asleep in her dessert after one too many glasses of champagne – they are sure to provide you with some memorable moments to smile at.

Throwing Confetti

A must have shot for the wedding album features the Bride and Groom gracefully strolling out of the Church or down the beach whilst being showered in confetti. Give your guests extravagant real dried flower petals in stunning colours or exquisite miniature rose petal confetti that looks truly beautiful when thrown in the air. If confetti is not permitted at your venue then opt for a bottle of bubbles to add a magical final touch to your special day.

Favours

Give your guests something to make your wedding the one to remember in the form of a special favour. From beautiful, traditional organza favour bags filled with sugared almonds, to stylish favour boxes filled with chocolate hearts, there is something to suit everyone. For a more contemporary look opt for miniature packets of Love Hearts or an unusual tuxedo styled favour box - sure to be a welcomed gift to take home.

To make the shopping process as stress-free as possible, The Last Detail aims to deliver all products within 7 working days.
